

Judge Your Grocer By the Butter He Sells

It is safe to judge a grocer by the butter he sells. If your grocer sells Meadow Gold Butter stick to him. He will prove honest all along the line.

Meadow Gold is pure butter—just as solid as it can be worked—made from rich, carefully-ripened, thoroughly pasteurized, pure cream—then immediately packed in moisture proof, taint proof packages and sealed.

News of South Richmond

South Richmond Bureau, The Times-Dispatch, 1102 Hull Street.

Dudley I. Ely, the largest member of the Richmond police force, and dubbed the "baby" of the old Manchester department, resigned yesterday afternoon. This is the second vacancy this week, and comes within a few days of the dismissal of J. V. Nunally.

Patrolman Ely is thought to have resigned because he wished to engage in the restaurant business. Other reasons are also given as to his decision. His resignation will become effective today, and his successor will probably be selected by the Police Board tomorrow.

Mr. Ely had been a member of the Manchester force for about five years and his record is an honorable one. He was popular with his colleagues. In size, he tipped the scales at about 300 pounds, and was a picture of health and good nature.

Try Whitlow To-Day.

W. T. Whitlow, accused of feloniously cutting J. W. Powell with a saw several weeks ago, severing several arteries in his arm, will be arraigned in Hustings Court, Part 2, this morning at 10 o'clock.

The two engaged in a heated altercation over some slight matter. It is alleged that Powell threatened to strike Whitlow, at which provocation the latter seized Powell over the arm with a saw he held in his hand, severing a blood vessel and badly hurting his victim. After his arrest, Whitlow said that Powell applied some vile epithet to him, upon which he lost his temper, resenting the words by striking his man.

James Jeffries, not white and no pugilist, charged with feloniously assaulting his brother and skipping his bond, will also be tried today.

Chesterfield County Fair.

The farmers and citizens of Chesterfield county are arranging for a big day at the Chesterfield County Fair, which will be held at the courthouse next Monday. The indications are that a very large crowd will be present at this, the first fair in the fine old county.

Sunday School Union.

The fifth Sunday meeting of the West Chesterfield Sunday School Union will be held in Central Baptist Church, near Midlothian, next Sunday. The meeting will continue all day, and dinner will be served on the grounds to the visitors.

An attractive program of exercises for the occasion has been arranged by Minor C. Horner, president, and J. W. Jeffries, secretary. One number will include a lecture on Sunday school.

work by the Rev. J. T. Tucker, pastor of the church.

Engagement Announced.

The engagement of Russell Fitzgerald, of 1208 Bainbridge Street, and Miss Masie Strader, of McDonough Street, has been announced. The wedding will be celebrated November 13. Mr. Russell is a very popular young man of the Southside, and Miss Strader has a wide circle of friends.

Spook Party.

On Friday evening, October 23, at 8 o'clock, a "spook party" will be given in the home of Mrs. W. J. Carter, for the benefit of the Orphanage Society of Central Methodist Church. An excellent musical program has been arranged and all are guaranteed a most enjoyable evening.

Go to Petersburg.

Washington Camp, No. 32, Patriotic Sons of America, of South Richmond and other lodges of Swansboro and across the river, will go to Petersburg tomorrow night, where the members will pay an informal visit to Washington Camp, No. 39.

Personal Mention.

Mrs. Charles L. Page and Miss Bessie Page left last week for New York and Chicago. A little later Miss Page will be the guest of her friend, Miss Kate Aborn, in Boston.

Mrs. Mattie Thompson, Mrs. French and grandson, Dudley, have returned to their home in Texas, after being the guests of relatives here during the summer months.

Miss Carrie McGeorge underwent an operation a few days ago at the Virginia Hospital, and is said to be getting along as well as could be expected.

Miss Annie Lee Bland, who has been visiting Mrs. E. G. Hill, returned to her home at West Point last Monday.

Mrs. Minor Brounigh and children, of Albemarle county, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brounigh.

Mrs. Benjamin Dennis returned home Monday from Charleston, S. C., where she was visiting Mrs. Jaeger.

Young Nelson Phillips, who has been critically ill at the home of his parents, is improving.

Will Build New School.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Harrisonburg, Va., October 19.—Harrisonburg is to have a third public school building. A new $15,000 structure for the grades will be erected immediately and will be ready for occupancy by September, 1911.

A. G. Waterman, of New York City, has presented the town with a free site, valued at $5,000, on the well-known Waterman property on the western suburbs of Harrisonburg.

ANNUAL ELECTION HELD BY U. C. V.

Captain Whittle, of Norfolk, Is Chosen Grand Commander.

TRIBUTES PAID TO DANIEL

Veterans Favor Erection of Monument to the Late Senator.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Norfolk, Va., October 19.—The annual election of officers and a tribute to the late and lamented John Warwick Daniel, Virginia Senator, were the features of to-day's session of the Confederate Veterans of Virginia.

The new roster of officers, named by the body, is as follows:

Grand Commander, Captain William C. Whittle, of Norfolk.

First Lieutenant Grand Commander, Micajah Wood, of Charlottesville.

Second Lieutenant Grand Commander, Harry Woodind, of Danville.

Third Lieutenant Grand Commander, Colonel Thomas Smith, of Warrenton.

Inspector-General, Tipton D. Jennings, of Lynchburg.

Quartermaster-General, David A. Brown, of Richmond.

Chaplain-General, John P. Hyde, D. D., of Winchester.

Surgeon-General, Dr. Herbert N. Nash, of Norfolk.

The many tributes paid to the late Senator Daniel followed a resolution introduced by General T. T. Munford, offering a memorial to the dead statesman and Confederate soldier, and recommending that the necessary steps be taken for the erection of a monument to his memory. The resolution was adopted, and in addition, it will contain the verbal tributes paid to Senator Daniel on the floor of the convention.

An Eloquent Tribute.

the family, and loved him devotedly. "No man in Virginia since the war has occupied a warmer place in the hearts of the people than John Warwick Daniel," declared Major Stubbs. "He was as brave as the bravest, true as the truest, and no more loyal man ever lived."

"Truly," can be said that the foremost man in Virginia is no more, but let us hope that some time in the future another Daniel will come to take his place and make a record as bright and as honorable as John Warwick Daniel's."

Climax of Reunion.

The following is the announced order of the parade of the veterans to-morrow morning, the event which is scheduled to be the climax of the Norfolk reunion:

Parade will form on Commercial Place at 9:30 A. M. and move promptly at 10 o'clock over the following streets: To Main, to Granby, to Freemason, to Botetourt, to York, to Boush, to Freemason, to Granby.

Returning the veterans, choir, sponsors, maids and sons and chapters will march directly to N. Y. P. & N. steamer for a trip around and down the harbor, from 12 to 3 o'clock.

At night a reception and ball will be given in honor of the sponsors and maids of honor at the Ghent Club. Reception, 8:30 to 9:30 P. M.; ball, 9:30 to 1 A. M.

This will close the twenty-third reunion of the Grand Camp.

Before adjourning, the Grand Camp of Confederate Veterans selected Newport News as the place for the reunion next year. Roanoke made a bid for the reunion, but the Tidewater city

CHARTER SPECIAL LAUNDRY TRAIN

Convention Over, Delegates Scatter to Their Homes.

FISHER WINS PRESIDENCY

Members Assert Meeting Just Closed Best in Association's History.

Asserting that the meeting here had been the pleasantest and most successful ever held, the 2,000 visitors and delegates who attended the twenty-seventh annual convention of the Laundrymen's National Association of America yesterday spoke their farewell. Following adjournment shortly after noon, the thoughts of the visitors at once turned toward home. As fast as they came in on Saturday and Sunday, they dropped out during the afternoon and last night. Whole trainloads of them were leaving at intervals until early this morning.

Reviewing the events of the last few days, there can be no question that the delegates' verdict is correct. This convention was indeed notable. From all standpoints, business and social, it was the greatest in the history of the organization.

With the rap of the president's gavel yesterday morning at a few minutes after 10 o'clock, the convention hall, which had been filled to its capacity fifteen minutes previous, at once became silent. The difference between the opening yesterday and other days was marked. It had been the case that the delegates were slow in assembling, which had more than once caused the president to express his displeasure. Yesterday, however, not even the blast of the official bugler were needed to summon the delegates to the convention chamber. Many of them were there fully an hour before the time.

Rivalry for Office.

The rivalry between the two candidates for the presidency had grown overnight, and intense interest was felt in the election. The Western delegation was working with might and main for the election of L. H. Fisher, of Kansas City, while the friends of Arthur W. Solomon, of Savannah, Ga., were no less active in their efforts to land the man at the head of the organization.

To those who had followed the trend of things it became evident late Tuesday evening that the Western move had the odds in his favor, and general expectations were but fulfilled when he was elected yesterday. The vote stood: Fisher, Solomon, 71.

Following the announcement of the result of the election there occurred one of the most pleasant incidents of the whole convention. Rising to his feet in the midst of the silence which followed the great demonstration at the announcement of Mr. Fisher's election, Mr. Solomon, after paying graceful compliments to his successful rival, moved that the vote be made unanimous. For five minutes the applause was deafening, while his suggestion was carried out.

Officers Elected.

The rest of the ticket being without opposition was unanimously elected. The new officers are as follows:

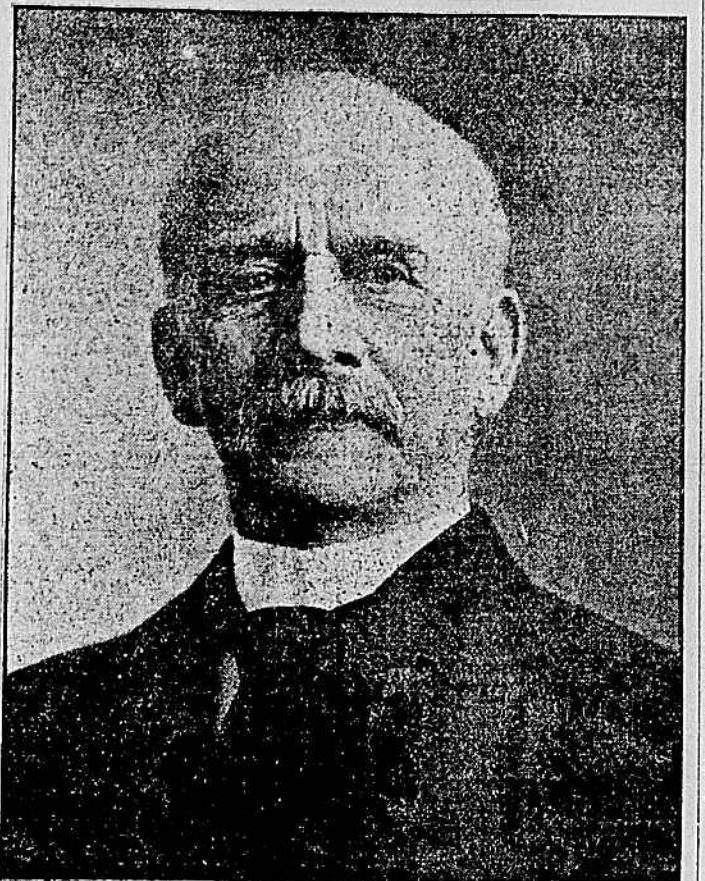

President, L. H. Fisher, Kansas City; First Vice-President, Mordecai B. Florsheim, Richmond; Second Vice-President, P. M. Cave, Charlotte, N. C.; Third Vice-President, H. W. Corncock, Milwaukee; Fourth Vice-President, R. A. Fox, New Orleans; Secretary, John H. Heath, New York; Treasurer, Carroll Thornton, Youngstown, O.; Sergeant-at-Arms, Major W. A. Turpin, New York.

Members of the Executive Committee—S. J. Crawford, New Haven, Conn.; Charles A. Wheeler, Fort Worth, Tex.; Henry W. Stier, Cleveland, O.; W. P. Webster, St. Paul, Minn.; W. E. Fitch, La Salle, Ill.

Reports of the secretary and treasurer were presented yesterday and were unanimously adopted. On the report of Otto Rice, of Chicago, the payment of the sum of $500 to Secretary C. A. Werner for his services during the year was authorized. Splendid tributes were paid to the secretary and his work in behalf of the organization.

Great excitement was caused during the session by the denunciation by R. C. Shanberger, of Indianapolis, and ind. of reports concerning Mr.

An Announcement

The Piano Men's Exposition, held in our city in the spring of the year, was a great educator to musical people from the entire country. To us it was an inspiration. We felt it a necessity to secure the representation of something superior to any of the worthy Pianos heretofore sold in this musical community.

Our building has, therefore, become the home of that Perfection of Pianos—the incomparable Sohmer of New York and the World of Art.

Perfection of Tone—THE SOHMER.
Perfection of Touch—THE SOHMER.
Perfection of Scale—THE SOHMER.

Rubinstein said: "First, Tone; second, Tone; third, Tone—Deus Ex Machina." We invite the public to call on us. A cordial welcome is assured. The Sohmer Piano is not a question of finances, but a fulfillment of art. They are here in all styles of cases.
